COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LI BRARY. The cheapest reprint from English

Periodicals ever offered to the public.

EFORE the Select Circulating Librahscovered that there was still something wanting-that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a turler medium of communicaion and supply the desideratum, the lour nal of Belles Lettres was added; wnich we have reason to believe has avorded genera satisfaction. The very liberal patronage ex tended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown ther desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive describtion, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniana, inter-Specised with the Reviews from the English T.
